The AF&GA Nutrition Seminar

April 4-5, 2018

The AF&GA Nutrition Seminar is a meeting that informs poultry nutrition professionals about current challenges in the poultry industry and potential solutions to these issues. The event is cosponsored by the Alabama Feed & Grain Association, along with the World's Poultry Science Association-USA Branch.

All proceeds go to the Education Fund, which will be used for scholarships to deserving students in an agricultural field of study.

To become a sponsor or to receive more details, contact Edna Waller by phone (256-775-0111) or e-mail (edna@alabamafeedandgrain.com). Sponsorship payments can be made during the early registration period for the conference.
