

AF&GA Poultry Nutrition Seminar

April 22-23, 2020

The AF&GA Poultry Nutrition Seminar is a meeting that informs poultry nutrition professionals about current challenges in the poultry industry and potential solutions to these issues. The event is held each spring in Huntsville, Alabama, and is cosponsored by the Alabama Feed & Grain Association, along with the World's Poultry Science Association-USA Branch.

All proceeds go to the Education Fund, which will be used for scholarships to deserving students in an agricultural field of study.
